

I hope that you will not proceed with this endeavor to shut down the competition, after all most local channels are owned or leased by a large national corporation and are usually syndicated. So why would XM's service be any different?

Please allow the freedom of competition to continue. That is what America is all about!

Michael McCormick